Dear Parents and carers,

I hope you all had a lovely half term break. The children are working very hard in class and continue to impress me with their knowledge and enthusiasm for learning. We are beginning new, exciting topics in the class, as well as building on prior learning. As we build up to Easter we will be learning about Jesus' resurrection and reflect on our Lenten promises. We look forward to another exciting and busy half term. Many thanks for all your support.
